

Accountability for the effective delivery of the University's Academic mission grounded in the creation and sharing of knowledge that enables individuals, communities, and society overall can reach its highest potential.

Enabling and supporting relationships with and reporting to elected officials and government employees at the Municipal, County, Provincial, and Federal level

Identification, Development, and Attainment of diverse and stable financial, technological, human, and physical resources to enable the academic mission of the University.

Responsibility for the allocation of human, technical, financial, and physical resources to the optimization of the University's Academic Mission and the long term value of our parchments.

Engage with and contribute to the various communities that are served by our University such that the University strengthens and is strengthened by our connections to the broader communities we serve.

Engage with, contribute to, and support the University's internal communities to enable and support a culture built on our core values, engagement, belonging, and community to drive toward the successful fulfilment of our Academic Mission.

Participate in and serve a leadership role in the bi-cameral governance environment and its relationship to provincial and national governance structures.

Champion and embody the story and future of Athabasca University and its leadership role in the future of adult learning and transforming lives and communities globally